

Bronze Age Round Table

Dear all,

our Bronze Age Round Table will meet again this semester. All Students (under-graduate, graduate and doctoral) as well as guests are welcome to discuss new research and results. This Semester Hendrik Raese and Sebastian Schultrich will talk about their theses. Almuth Alsleben from the Project "Siedlungen der Bronzezeit - Archäologische und paläoökologische Untersuchungen älterbronzezeitlicher Siedlungen in Norddeutschland" give us new insights into the vegetation history of northern Germany and Denmark during Bronze Age. In the last meeting set for February, we would like to discuss a new article from Helle Vandkilde examining the significance of warfare and warrior-hood around 1600 BC. See you in room 123.

Jutta Kneisel, Christian Horn

Wednesday, Leibnizstraße 3 Room 123, 4.00-6.00 pm

12.11. 2014

Hendrik Raese, The Bronze Age double Buttons in North and Central Europe Period I-III.

10.12. 2014

Almuth Alsleben, Vegetation history of the Bronze Age: Its reflection in the pollen diagrams of northern Germany and Denmark

14.01. 2015

Sebastian Schultrich, Late Neolithic Depositions at Transition to Bronze Age

11.01.2015

Discussion of the paper:

HELLE VANDKILDE, Archaeology, Theory, and War-Related Violence: Theoretical Perspectives on the Archaeology of Warfare and Warriorhood. Oxford Handbooks Online 2014. (will be send around in time).